JOHNSTON COUNTY HERITAGE CENTER
SMITHFIELD, N.C.

Our Principal

Congratulations to the Graduating Class of 1951. I hope that the time you have spent in school will be of lasting value to you. You have dedicated this Year Book to your parents who certainly deserve this honor. I know your school would like for you to be the type of citizen in your community so when the time comes our next generation will feel free to dedicate a Year Book in your honor. May each of you have success in life is my wish to you.

Ottis C. Freeman

Dedication.

Dear Parents,

Affectionately and with sincere respect and gratitude, we, the Seniors of 1951, dedicate this Corinthian to you, the Parents of all the students of Corinth-Holders High School. In doing so, perhaps we can, in our own small way, pay tribute to you who have been responsible for our welfare and happiness in life.

We have not let the sacrifices you have made and the hardships you have borne to give us every possible opportunity to become better men and women pass unnoticed. Your untiring efforts to shape our lives into something worthwhile merit great respect and admiration, for it is only by your faith and guidance that we have achieved our goal.

We fully realize that whatever success we may attain in the future will be due to you, our parents, and we sincerely hope that you will feel well rewarded for your work.

Sincerely,
The Senior Class
of 1951

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

We, the Class of '51, entered a new phase of life in the fall of 1947, for on this bright and glorious day we began our troubles in Corinth-Holders High School.

Our time was well consumed by all the events new to us, but with the supervision of Mrs. William Hill Powell, Jr. and Miss Iola Hofler we managed to overcome our hardships.

In our sophomore year, directed by Mr. Carroll and Mrs. Garner, we enjoyed watching the greenness of the Freshmen, forgetting that just one year ago we had played that same role. Our minds were soon filled with work, and time passed us into our Junior year.

Under the guidance of Miss Lyerly we had a most enjoyable year. We presented a very successful play, "Look Me in the Eye," and honored the Seniors at a Junior-Senior Banquet, carrying out the theme, "Moonlight and Roses."

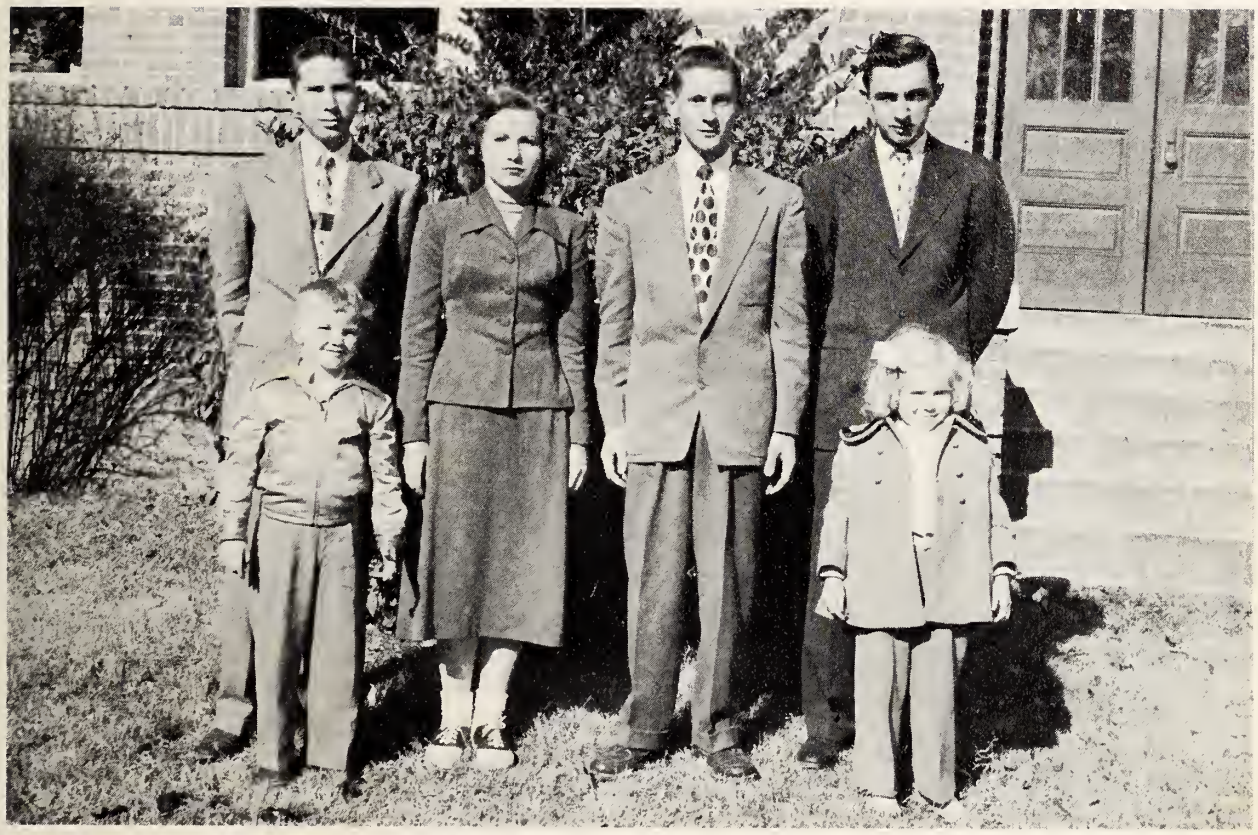

Then, after spending three anxious months, we returned to the campus for our big year, the Senior year we had dreamed of and yet feared we would never reach. We had as our guide Miss Sadler.

Some of our most thrilling events were: selecting our class rings, collecting material and organizing our annual, presenting our Senior play, and attending the Junior-Senior Banquet. Then—the wonderful event for which we had long awaited—Graduation!

The thought of it all brings tears to our eyes, but momentarily we must turn our backs upon our Alma Mater and follow the well worn path into life to seek what it has in store for us. We feel with certainty that those who shall fill our places in the years to come, as well as we the Alumni, will ever proclaim our Alma Mater, showering upon it the credit of our accomplishments wherever we go

THE CLASS

CLASS PROPHECY

One day as I was sitting in my office, my employer came in and dictated a letter to me. To my surprise it was to an old classmate, Robert Alford, who for the past ten years has been President of the First Citizens Bank in Raleigh. His secretary is Daisy Belle Creech, another classmate. Hearing the names of these two members of the class of '51 caused me to begin thinking about my other classmates and how successful they have been.

Hugh Wilder, who was one of the leading members of our class, is editor of the News and Observer. Virginia Skinner is also on its staff as a reporter. We had quite a few athletic personalities in our class, and their names appear in sports stories all over the nation. Hazel Creech and Tillie Sue Hinton are finalists in the National Open Golf Tournament. Harold Hinton is the greatest star on the Washington Capital's basketball team and Emma Jeanne Alford is sports reporter for the State College Wolfpack.

Three of our class members are in the medical profession. Thomas Barham is a well-known surgeon at Johns Hopkins Hospital. Dorothy Price is superintendent of nurses there and Appie Worley is her assistant.

Pat O'Neal, who was the best swimmer in our class, recently swam the English Channel. Geneva Richardson has just signed a contract with M-G-M and will soon be appearing in her first movie. Her clothes will be designed by Ruth Johnson. William Perry Wall, who is also an M-G-M star, will be her leading man.

Four members of the class have just returned from the first successful trip to the moon. They are Billy Flowers, Lloyd Tippett, Franklin Price, and Clifton Price. Doris Cooke is quite happy now. She is married to her army boy friend and is with him in Germany.

Billy Powell, who has always been known for his great sense of humor, has taken Groucho Marx's place on the radio program "You Bet Your Life." His scriptwriter is his wife, the former Dorothy Hinton. Orlin Wilder is a pilot for Trans-World Airlines. His co-pilot is Cramer Brown, and Velma Eason is stewardess on the plane they fly. Jeanette Hinton will soon be presenting her first piano concert in Carnegie Hall. Annette Price is also in New York. She is reservation clerk at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Charles Denton and Odell Atkinson own and operate the Universal Chevrolet Company in Wendell. Anna Hocutt, who was the most religious student in our class, is head of the Religion Department at U.N.C. Two of our class members are residing in Washington, D. C. Mary Lou Edwards is serving as Congresswoman from North Carolina and Talmage Harris is the President's personal bodyguard.

Several members of the class are living in Raleigh. Joseph Murphy is a well-known lawyer there. Ray Hocutt is projectionist at the Ambassador Theater. Helen Hocutt is manager of Ellisburgs and Clentis Phillips is cashier. Reba Poole has made her debut into North Carolina Society and is Raleigh's leading young hostess.

After thinking of each of my classmates, I went back to work, pleased with the careers each of them had chosen.

CLASS SONG

All our days at Corinth High we'll soon be leaving
To start a life that to us will be new,
But the mem ries of the happy days we spent there
We'll cherish 'till our life on earth is through.

That dear name of Corinth High we will remember
And all our teachers and our classmates too,
Who stood by us through our victories and our hardships
May God be good to those who were so true.

And when the coming years find us much older
With all our happy school days long gone by,
We will one day pass into that land of wonder
But mem'ries of these days will never die.

B. J. Bunn
Class Song Writer

CLASS POEM

Oh, Senior Class of Corinth High
Our praises to thee sing.
We end our school days with a sigh
To seek what life may bring.
We realize that we must part
Bidding our friends goodbye.
Each memory that we have in heart
Seems to our minds defy.
We wish to say, "Our best to you,"
Although it hurts us so
To leave our dear old classmates true
As we into the future go.
Here's to our joy, our pride, and hope
Dear old Corinth High.
Our friendships once so firm be broke
These scenes can never die.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of 1951 of Corinth-Holders High School, composed of thirty-eight individual parts, being of sound mind, do hereby make and publish this, our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To the Faculty we leave our deepest appreciation for the numerous services rendered us by their never-ceasing effort and understanding.

ARTICLE II

To the Juniors we extend the thrill of organizing the annual and selecting the class ring.

ARTICLE III

To the Sophomores we leave our great sense of loyalty which has united us into the strong Senior Class.

ARTICLE IV

To the Freshmen we will our studious ways, through which we have attained the valuable knowledge that entitles us to our chief goal, a diploma.

ARTICLE V

To our Parents we extend our honor of graduating, for only by their sincere interest and sacrifices was it made possible.

ARTICLE VI

Individual Bequests

SCHOOL CHEER SONG

When Corinth-Holders High School fell in line,
We knew that we would win another time.
For C. H. S. we yell, we yell, we yell
And for our team we yell, we yell, we yell, we yell.
There is a blue-gold banner on the wall.
We knew that we would win the first of all.
Come on you students we will cheer the school, cheer the school,
Rah! Rah! Rah!

ON YOUR GRADUATION

Today we are printers of the yearbook of your school.

Tomorrow as you seek your future in the professions, industry and commerce we at Paragon hope to serve you with the essential Printing and Lithography you will need in the pursuit of your career.

Many of our best customers came to us through friendships formed around the annual planning table or from former grads like yourself who first saw our work in their annual.
